

M & M Serving overseas in sensitive area
Supported by WSBC since 2008

During this past spring, M & M began an exciting outreach endeavor that brought them to different villages each week. As they travel the path that some in the Bible have traveled they look for opportunities to meet and talk with the locals. God provides great opportunities for M & M to share the message of Jesus Christ. Just after 6 pm on a Monday last month, M & M were sitting in their living room when M's Rocket Alert app went off at the same time air raid sirens sounded. Two loud explosions followed. M& M were unharmed but the unrest in the region had come much closer than they imagined it would. Thankfully that night there were no subsequent rocket blasts close to them. They later found out the rockets landed about a half mile from their home. Unrest in the area has not been limited to rocket attacks but also street violence between different religious groups that have been living together in peace for years. M & M are not fearful but are being cautious. M still ventures out into the village but for short periods of time. They have paused their outreach endeavor that they started in the spring. How much they venture out is determined day-to-day depending on the day's circumstances and the Holy Spirit's leading.

- Pray for peace in the area they are in and end to the violence.
- Pray for God's protection for M & M.
- Pray that they recognize opportunities to pursue to proclaim and demonstrate the love, life and message of Jesus Christ.

SERMON NOTES

Philip: The Work of Evangelism Acts 8

For the church to successfully complete her mission individual believers must be evangelists.

1. We learn of the power of the good news of Jesus Christ when proclaimed to a whole city.

2. We learn of the power of the good news of Jesus Christ when told to one person.
